

John Peter Smith

Fort Worth, TX

Why JPS?

Forth Worth EM residency training continually looks to provide innovative curriculum for the learning of Emergency Medicine. Recognizing our learners with different ways of assimilating knowledge, we strive to meet them in their quest to become excellent Emergency Medicine physicians. Here at the Fort Worth EM Residency Program, we believe, combining our volume, pathology, and an innovative didactic curriculum is the perfect recipe for success.

Contacts

Charles Huggins, MD

Residency Program Director

Katie Holmes, DO

Associate Program Director
Co-Clerkship Director

Jennifer Byrd, DO

Associate Program Director

Hunter Scarborough, MD

Assistant Program Director
Co-Clerkship Director

Important Facts

Rotations Include:

- Baylor Irving
- Children's Medical Center in Dallas

Pediatrics experience:

- PGY-1: one month peds EM
- PGY-2: one month PICU
- Longitudinal experiences in peds EM in PGY-2 and 3 at CMC

Electives:

- Hand/Ophtho, Street Medicine, EMS, Toxicology, Ultrasound, Sports Medicine, Administration, Medical Education

Ultrasound experience:

- PGY-1: one month dedicated Ultrasound/Toxicology rotation
- Log at least 300 US scans throughout residency with opportunities to participate in related research

Fellowships:

- Street Medicine
- Ultrasound
- Administration
- Medical Education

15

Residents per class

Level I

Trauma designation

County

Program

150,000

Patients per year

Connect

- Instagram: @FortWorthEM
- Twitter: @FortWorthEM
- Website: fortworthem.com

